CANCER - a deluded, egotistical ASS - goes on his own journey of denial, anger, bargaining and acceptance when he discovers that the whole world hates him.

CANCER gives the cabaret performance of a lifetime! In this one-man, satirical cabaret Bruce Horak (Two-Time Betty Mitchell Award winner: This is CANCER and Evil Dead: The Musical) brings Cancer to life. A cancer survivor himself, and one of Canada's only legally blind professional actors, Bruce brings a fresh and funny perspective to a disease that too many of us will face and that so many of us could use a good laugh at. Directed by award-winning director/performer Rebecca Northan (Betty Mitchell Award: Blind Date, Canadian Comedy Award: Best Sketch Group, Gemini and Dora Award nominee: CTV's "Alice, I Think") "This is CANCER:" will leave you wondering how you could fall in love with such a deadly performer.
