

TARRAGON THEATRE
BOYGROOVE

Featuring:
Matt Alden, Andrew Bursay, more.
Written by Chris Craddock.
Directed by Kenneth Brown.
July 15, 4pm: July 16, 10:30pm.

This hilarious tale of the rise and fall of the worlds greatest boy band features spot-on satires of pop and rap music. The public and personal lives of Jon (Jon Paterson) the angry guy, Andrew (Andrew Bursey) the sensitive guy, Kevin (Matt Alden) the boy next door and Lance (Scott Walters) the gay guy, are interspersed with wonderfully choreographed, high-energy performances of their greatest hits and those of their rapper enemy Hype (played by all four). These are four terrifically talented actor-singer-dancers with perfect comic timing. In the words of a BoyGroove song, "You Make My Hips Buck, Baby." Christopher Hoile
